Now, thinking about something else...
Q10 There are many important issues in this presidential campaign. When it comes to deciding for whom you will vote for president, which one of the following is the single most important issue in deciding for whom you will vote? (IF "ALL," ASK:) Well, if you had to choose the most important issue, which would you choose? (IF CHOICE, THEN ASK:) And which would be the second most important issue to you in deciding for whom you will vote for president?+

Now, thinking again about this November's elections...
Q11 What is your preference for the outcome of this year's congressional elections -- (ROTATE:) a Congress controlled by Republicans or a Congress controlled by Democrats?

(THE GREEN AND LIBERTARIAN CANDIDATES WERE READ ONLY IN THE STATES WHERE THEY ARE ON THE BALLOT)

Q14 If the next election for president were held today, with (ROTATE TOP TWO:) Mitt Romney as the Republican candidate, Barack Obama as the Democratic candidate, Gary Johnson the Libertarian Candidate, and Jill Stein the Green Candidate for whom would you vote?

Moving on...

Q15 In general, do you think that it is better for the same political party to control both the Congress and the presidency, so they can work together more closely, or do you think that it is better to have different political parties controlling the Congress and the presidency to prevent either one from going too far?

Now, moving on and changing topics...
(ROTATE Q31 AND Q32)
Q31 Barack Obama recently said that if you have been successful, you did not get there on your own. There was a great teacher somewhere in your life. Somebody helped to create the American system that allowed you to thrive. He said if you have a business, you didn't build that, somebody else made that happen. When we succeed, we succeed because of our individual initiative, but also because we do things together. Does this make you feel more positive or more negative about Barack Obama, does it not make much difference in your opinion or do you not know enough about this to have an opinion at this time?+

Q32 Mitt Romney recently said forty seven percent (47\%) of people will vote for President Obama no matter what because they are dependent upon government, believe they are victims, and believe the government has a responsibility to care for them. He said his message of low taxes does not connect with the forty-seven percent ( $47 \%$ ) of Americans who pay no income taxes so his job is not to worry about those people as he will never convince them they should take personal responsibility for their lives. Does this make you feel more positive or more negative about Mitt Romney, does it not make much difference in your opinion or do you not know enough about this to have an opinion at this time?+
